Blind Lemon

From upbeat double-time stomps to a good old Texas shuffle, this band covers all of the blues spectrum giving them complete variety. Solid rhythms pump along with rockin' guitar and wailing harmonica to give them a contagiously energetic sound.

Midnight Groove

This unique, multi-instrumental duo has the versatility of offering many different musical genres. With over 25 years combined musical experience, they can cater to all tastes from jazz to dance floor hits.

Memphis Movers

Dressed in bright 50's style suits with large 50's 'ducktail' hair, these guys are a wealth of talent, performing all the great songs from the 50's and 60's with flair.

Movies on the Broadwater

Saturday 9 January

Salty Pete Pirate Show

Interactive pirate show for all ages featuring pirate stories, songs and sea shanties, a treasure hunt, tug-o-war and more.

Juzzie Smith

Juzzie Smith's music steps into blues, folk, and country and then off into a world of its own. Embracing the slide guitar, yidaki (didgeridoo), foot percussion, along side his harmonica and vocal performance, Juzzie displays a musical dexterity that will blow you away.

Mr Doll

'Is he real? What is he made of? How do they do that?' With his perfect staccato movements, a magnificent rubber look and the ability to never blink his eyes, the audience is left looking for the man with the remote control.

Saturday 23 January

Interactive activities

Check out the interactive workshops and activities on offer including kite making, circus skills, juggling and rock climbing.

New Orleans Touch of Brass

New Orleans Touch Of Brass will have you feeling your in New Orleans. They play bright toe tapping music as well as the classics that make jazz still popular today.

Colourfide

Colourfide are an energetic six piece performing a colourful and unique blend of infectious grooves and massive melodies featuring reggae, funk, blues and rock sounds. They are guaranteed to bend your knees and get you down with their sound.

Shoebox

Shoebox are an original acoustic duo whose feel is reggae, smooth melodies and blues. These are put together with some cool cat chords to create a unique sound, while the lyrics are a story of the ups and downs of life's journey.

BMX jam and workshop

Get on your bike and ride in these beginner workshops hosted by professional BMX rider, Tim Wood. Workshop is followed by a BMX jam where you can show off your latest tricks and moves.

Balloon Kings

The Balloon Kings are 'seriously twisted' and will astound you with their amazing balloon creations and antics, providing fun and entertainment for all ages.

Strictly Strings

These fun loving string players set a unique atmosphere as they stroll, strum, serenade and swing along to a wide range musical styles (including celtic, classical, cabaret, latin, light popular and jazz).

Dan Hannaford

Dan Hannaford pursues a sound that will capture the heart of a generation. His songs are raw, challenging and refreshingly real with true heart and soul. He combines his coastal country locale with rootsy flair of acoustic guitars, bottleneck slide, jaw harp and a backyard built stomp box.

Half Past Ten

Get into the Australia Day spirit with Half Past Ten. Specialising in pub rock classics as well as pumping out newer Australian rock by such legends as Powderfinger, John Butler Trio and Pete Murray, Half Past Ten's versatility and positive vibe will have you singing and dancing in no time.

zookeepers

The Zookeepers are a tight, dynamic and versatile band with something for everyone. Their extensive song list includes the very latest hits, classic rock, pop, retro classics, modern jive, country, rock n roll, love ballads, acoustic, easy listening and a sprinkling of jazz to top it off.

Dave J

Dave J's unique one man show with a distinctly Australian sound stands out from the crowd, featuring strong dance beats mixed in smoothly with the slide didgeridoo and percussion sounds – a talented multi-instrumentalist.

Clay Blythe

Clay Blythe performing a majestic blend of bluegrass, soft rock, country, contemporary and classic acoustic slide guitar methods coupled with his talented vocal ability is certainly not to be missed. Think Jack Johnson meets Mason Rack - you just cannot take your eyes away from his performance.

Balyana

Playing anything from bluegrass, folk to country rock - from Hank Williams to Paul Kelly. Balyana blend vocal harmonies with a broad range of acoustic instruments including 6 and 12 string guitars, mandolin, accordion, harmonica, banjo, fiddle, bass and dobro. This trio is a definite crowd pleaser.
